Intruder at GB Pant Hospital

THE STAFF at the Govind Ballabh Pant Hospital have apprehended an intruder who allegedly attempted to molest the Sister in-charge of Ward No 7 on Saturday night. The intruder, identified as Satnam, was in an inebriated condition. The Sister, who was in a state of shock, recalled that when she crossed the lobby of Ward No 6, the man followed her and mouthed obscenities. When she signalled for help and ran into a narrow pathway leading to the stairs, he said, "Wait, I am also coming," and ran after her. She screamed for help and a wardboy and a sweepress came to her aid. Though the man attempted to run out but was apprehended by some people and later taken to the Pant Hospital police post.

Prohibitory orders

THE DELHI Police on Saturday imposed prohibitory orders in the national capital for six days in view of the second anniversary of the demolition of the disputed Babri Masjid at Ayodhya on December 6. Under the order, carrying of arms are prohibited.

NRI robbed

A NON-RESIDENT Indian, who had come to Delhi for opening a chain of fast food places, was robbed of several valuable items, including laptop computers, and foreign cash worth Rs 1.63 lakh. According to an FIR registered with the Connaught Place police on December 1, Mr Sharad Bhatnagar from Los Angeles had checked into ITDC Janpath Hotel on October 27. During the evening hours of December 1, somebody stole two briefcases containing two laptop computers worth Rs 1 lakh, cash US $ 5,200, a laser printer, cameras, shavers, pens, electronic diary and recorder from his room. Mr Bhatnagar estimated total loss at Rs 3.73 lakh. Mr Bhatnagar lamented that the senior officials of the hotel did not bother to come to his room the day he was robbed.

'Project Sangursh' launched

ON THE occasion of World Disabled Day, Heart Care Foundation of India launched "Project 'Sangursh' on Saturday. People with disabilities are not completely useless, but can do a lot only if they are given a chance, said Dr (Col) K L Chopra, Chairman and Dr K K Aggarwal of Heart Care Foundation of India. Ms Preeti Singh was elected the convenor of Project "Sangursh" for the year 1994-1995. Ms Singh who is visually handicapped since the age of six, received education from New York and achieved excellence in the field of marketing and aerobics. She has now become an aerobic instructor and marketing head of a company. "We are not disabled but differentially abled," said Ms Singh. The project has been started with the aim of educating the public on how to take care of the disabled and provide help and guidance to them.
