I am Preeti Singh

I begin the day at 6.30 a.m. by teaching aerobics. Nothing like a good work out in the morning.

By 8.30 a.m., I rush off to the office. As they say, the early bird catches the worm. Once the day starts the schedule is hectic. Catching up with dealers and distributors, checking out on sales figures and keeping an eye on the competition.

Evenings are reserved for my children. They do all the talking. They give me an account of every minute detail of their day.

Writing is a passion with me. Whenever I get the time, I switch on my computer and let my journalistic instincts flow. I have even managed to get some of my articles published.

The weekend is the only time when I get to meet my friends. It is fun to be on the fast track.

BY THE WAY, I AM TOTALLY BLIND.

Thanks Mum and Dad
For all the love, encouragement and opportunity.
